THE NEED:

Mary Magdalene Project (MMP) is the only nonprofit in Southern California existing solely to assist women prostitutes and their families permanently out of prostitution. Since 1980 we have known what so few understand about prostitution - that 85% of women street prostitutes were molested as children, 50% started turning tricks by age 15 as runaway/throwaway youth, and that they live desperate lives of addiction, disease, violence and murder. Without help they have very little chance of escape. MMP provides safety, food, clothing, shelter, health care, education & job training, childcare, transportation and possibilities where none existed, at no cost to clients. MMP is a unique organization committed to permanent change for a forgotten group of women and children.
